

Nationalist Constitutional Reform Party

Statement of Principles

Last Amended: March 2025

We, the members of the Nationalist Constitutional Reform Party, agree with, and will adhere to the following principles:

1. The inherent and unalienable rights of all men, women, and children, stand above all else.
2. Property rights are second only to our inherent and unalienable rights as a living man or woman.
3. The rights aforementioned will never be derogated by any member as the penalty will be removal from party membership.
4. Our purpose is to completely restructure the structure of our governing system.
5. The sole purpose of our government will be to manage resources and infrastructure to the benefit of only the men and women of our land, following the rules set forth in our constitution (national) to be created in a convention.
